

CONSTRUCTION MAINTENANCE AND ALLIED WORKERS CANADA

NEW SECRETARY TREASURER

The Construction Maintenance and Allied Workers Canada (CMAW Canada) is excited to announce that Jessie Gregory has been elected as the new Secretary-Treasurer, effective October 23, 2024. Jessie was elected through acclamation during our 10th Convention.

As a Red Seal Carpenter with 34 years of experience in the construction industry and a proud member of CMAW Canada Local 2300 for 22 years, Jessie has held numerous leadership roles within our organization. He has served as a job steward, a member of his local executive board, Chair of CMAW Canada's pension and benefit plans, and for the past five years, Jessie has worked as a Special Representative for CMAW Canada.

Outside of his professional commitments, Jessie enjoys riding motorcycles, hiking in the mountains, and swimming in the lakes and rivers near his home in Grand Forks, BC—when he finds the time!

Jessie is committed to ensuring the continued financial stability and operational success of our organization. We are confident that he will make valuable contributions to our team and work diligently to further our organization.

Please join us in congratulating Jessie on his new role. We look forward to the positive impact that his leadership will have on our organization in the coming years.
